lien in or upon any such property;

(e) To borrow money, and to evidence and secure any debt in any manner permitted by law to individuals and not prohibited by law to corporations;

(f) To conduct its business in this state and elsewhere and for that purpose to establish and maintain such offices and agencies as may be designated by the Board of Directors;

(g) To select, employ, and fix the compensation of such officers, employees, attorneys and agents as shall be deemed necessary and proper for the transaction of the business of the corporation;

(h) To acquire, guarantee, hold, own and vote and to sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of the capital stock, bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness of any other corporation, individual or combination of individuals, domestic or foreign, and to have similar powers in regard to its own capital stock if and when the exercise of such power will not impair the capital of this corporation, Provided: that it shall under no circumstances vote any such stock in itself;

(i) To acquire, operate and maintain a business for the purchase and sale of merchandise of every description at wholesale or retail;

(j) To invest its capital, surplus, assets, profits, or income in any and all manner of real property, personal property, stocks, bonds and securities of every description;

(k) To by its Board of Directors, make, alter, amend or repeal by-laws for the government of its affairs;

(l) To do all acts and things necessary, convenient or expedient to carry out the purposes for which it is formed and which may now be done by a natural person or corporation and which are not prohibited by law, but if any act, now prohibited, shall hereafter be allowed to any corporation it may be done by this corporation if necessary, convenient or expedient to its purposes as hereinbefore or hereinafter expressed; that this corporation shall not be deemed to possess any power prohibited to it by law unless and until such prohibition shall be removed;

(m) The foregoing clauses shall be construed as powers as well as purposes, and the matters expressed in each clause shall, unless otherwise expressly provided, be in no wise limited, by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause, but shall be regarded as independent powers and purposes and the enumeration of specific powers and purposes shall not be construed to limit or restrict in any manner the meaning of general terms or the general powers of the corporation; nor shall the expression of one thing be deemed to exclude another not expressed, although it be of like nature. The corporation shall be authorized to exercise and enjoy all other powers, rights and privileges granted by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana entitled "The Indiana General Corporation Act", approved March 16, 1929, and all acts supplemental and amendatory thereto, to corporations organized thereunder, or granted or permitted by the statute or common law of the State of
