County of Cook

I, George S. Geary Notary

T. C. L. in and for said County in the State aforesaid, Do Herby Certify, that John W. Cook who one personally known to me to be the real person... whose name John W. Cook subscribed to the within Deed to John W. Cook as having executed the same, appeared before me this day, in person, and acknowledged that they signed, sealed and delivered the said instrument of writing as John W. Cook free and voluntary act, for the uses and purposes therein set forth, and thereby convey all John W. Cook right, title and interest in and to the premises described in said Instrument, and expressly waived and released all right, title and benefit of exemption under any and all Homestead Exemption Laws, so called, of said State of Illinois.

And the said John W. Cook wife of the said John W. Cook having been by me examined, separate and apart from, and out of the hearing of her husband, and the contents and meaning of said instrument, and all her rights under the Homestead Laws of the State of Illinois, having been by me made known and fully explained to her, acknowledged it to be her act and deed, and that she had executed the same, and relinquished her dower and all other right, title and interest in and to the lands and tenements therin mentioned, and expressly waived and released all her rights and advantages under and by virtue of all laws of said State of Illinois relating to the Exemption of Homesteads, all voluntarily and freely, and without the compulsion of her said husband, and that she does not wish to retract the same.

Given under my hand and Notary seal, this
1st day of July 1887 A. D. 1887
