KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we

William M. Willis Doing Business As Air Quality Heating and Air Conditioning
3215 West Fourth Avenue, Lot 500, Gary, Indiana, as Principal, and TRANSAMERICA INSURANCE COMPANY, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California having its principal office in Los Angeles, California, as Surety, are held and firmly bound unto

City of Hammond, Indiana, as Obligee, in the sum of Five Thousand and no/100-----Dollars ($ 5,000.00 ) lawful money of the United States, for which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

WHEREAS, the Obligee has granted Principal a license or permit to act as a heating air conditioning contractor.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Condition of this Obligation is Such, that if the above Principal shall indemnify and save harmless the Obligee against loss to which the Obligee may be subject by reason of said Principal's breach of any ordinance, rule or regulation relating to the above described license or permit, then this obligation shall be null and void, otherwise, to remain in full force and effect.

A. This obligation may be cancelled by said Surety by giving thirty (30) days notice in writing of its intention so to do to said Obligee; and the said Surety shall be relieved of any further liability under this bond thirty (30) days after receipt of said notice by the said Obligee.

B. The term of this bond is for a period commencing January 1, 1980 and terminating January 1, 1981 and may be continued from year to year by continuation certificate executed by Principal and Surety.

I do further certify that the following transcript from Article VII of the By-Laws of TRANSAMERICA INSURANCE COMPANY is a just, true and correct copy of the original thereof and is still in full force and effect:

ARTICLE VII

SECTION 30. All policies, bonds, undertakings, certificates of insurance, cover notes, recognizances, contracts of indemnity, endorsements, stipulations, waivers, consents of sureties, re-insurance acceptances or agreements, surety and co-surety obligations and agreements, underwriting undertakings, and all other instruments pertaining to the insurance business of the Corporation, shall be validly executed when signed on behalf of the Corporation by the President, any Vice President or by any other officer, employee, agent or Attorney-in-Fact authorized to so sign by (i) the Board of Directors, (ii) the President, (iii) any Vice President, or (iv) any other person empowered by the Board of Directors, the President or any Vice President to give such authorization; provided that all policies of insurance shall also bear the signature of a Secretary, which may be a facsimile, and unless manually signed by the President or a Vice President, a facsimile signature of the President. A facsimile signature of a former officer shall be of the same validity as that of an existing officer.

The affixing of the corporate seal shall not be necessary to the valid execution of any instrument, but any person authorized to execute or attest such instrument may affix the Corporation's seal thereto.

This certification is signed and sealed by facsimile under and by the authority of the following resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of TRANSAMERICA INSURANCE COMPANY at a meeting duly called and held on the 27th day of December, 1962:

RESOLVED, that the signature of the Secretary and the seal of the Company may be affixed to any Certificate of appointment of Resident Officers or Attorneys-in-Fact by facsimile, and any such Certificate bearing such facsimile signature seal shall be valid and binding upon the Company when so affixed, and in the future, with respect to any bond, undertaking or contract of suretyship or any document or notice pertaining thereto, to which it is attached.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Company,
this 15th day of January, 1980
