Provisions for Regulation of Business and Conduct of Affairs of Corporation

Section 1. Meetings of Stockholders. Meetings of the stockholders of the corporation shall be held at such place, within or without the State of Indiana, as may be specified in the respective notices, or waivers of notice, thereof.

Section 2. Meetings of Directors. Meetings of the director of the corporation shall be held at such place within or without the State of Indiana as may be specified in the respective notices or waivers of notice, thereof.

Section 3. Code of Bylaws. The Board of Directors of the corporation shall have power, without the assent or vote of the stockholders to make, alter, amend or repeal the Code of Bylaws of the corporation, but the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors for the time being, shall be necessary to affect any alteration, amendment or repeal. If the Code of Bylaws for the time being in force so provides, the Board of Directors may designate two or more of its number to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in the Code of Bylaws, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the corporation, and have power to authorize the execution of and a fixation of the seal of this corporation to, all papers, or documents which may require it.

Section 4. Interest of Directors in Contracts. Any contract or other transaction between this corporation and one or more of its directors or between this corporation and any firm of which one or more of its directors are members or employees, or in which they are interested, or between this corporation and any corporation or association, of which one or more of its directors are stockholders, members, directors, officers, or employees, or in which they are interested, shall be valid for all purposes, notwithstanding the presence of such director or directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors which acts upon, or in reference to such contract or transaction, and notwithstanding his or her participation in such action, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors shall authorize, approve and ratify such contract or transaction by the approving vote of a majority of the noninterested directors. The interested director of directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at such meetings. This section of this Article shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction which would otherwise be valid under the common and statutory law applicable thereto.

SECRET

Section 5. Additional Powers of Directors. In addition to the powers and authorities herein above or by statute expressly conferred, the Board of Directors are hereby authorized to exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by a corporation organized and existing under the provisions of the Indiana General Corporation Act of 1929, as amended, so far as not in conflict herewith.

Section 6. Amendment of Articles of Incorporation. The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by the provisions of the Indiana General Assembly of the State of Indiana and all rights and powers conferred hereby on stockholders, directors and/or officers are subject to this reserve power.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being the incorporators designated in Article VI, do adopt, execute and deliver the foregoing Articles as and for the Articles of Incorporation of the TOWNSEND ROOFING COMPANY, INC., hereby declaring and certifying that the facts therein stated are true, and accordingly the undersigned do(es) hereto set their respective hands and seals this 17th day of June 1980.
