

1979
MAY 4

Last Will and Testament dated January 10, 1961, and that on May 4, 1979, said Last Will and Testament was admitted to probate and ROBERT P. MARVIS and MARGARET M. MARVIS were duly appointed as the Co-Executors thereof, did qualify, post bond, and have since said date been acting as such Co-Executors.

The Court further finds that more than five months has elapsed since the first publication of notice to the creditors and heirs herein; that no claims have been filed against this estate; that all debts and expenses of the decedent have been paid and discharged; that neither the decedent nor said Co-Executors as such were employers of labor within the meaning of that term as used in the Indiana Security Act.

The Court further finds that the inheritance tax due to the State of Indiana on the decedent's estate in the amount of $2,293.52 has been paid in full as shown by the countersigned receipt therefor filed with the Final Account. The Court further finds that no federal estate tax return was required to be filed for this estate. The Court further finds that all federal and state income taxes due from the decedent and from this estate have been paid.

The Court further finds that all of the acts done and performed by the Co-Executors herein should in all things be approved and that this estate and the assets therein have been fully administered. The Court further finds that all allegations and statements contained in said Final Account are true and that all costs of administration, including court costs, have been paid in full.

The Court further finds that ROBERT P. MARVIS and MARGARET M. MARVIS have waived any fees for their services as Co-Executors and that Thomas, Burke, Dyerly & Cuppy should be paid $1,500.00 for their services as attorney for said estate; that such fee is reasonable and proper and the payment of the same is hereby approved.

The Court further finds that the Co-Executors have fully satisfied the provisions of the Last Will and Testament of the decedent except for the distribution of the assets shown by the Final Account to be on hand; and that there remains to be distributed the following described property which was not disposed of during the administration of this estate:

1. Real estate situated in Lake County, Indiana, legally described as follows:

2. Miscellaneous household belongings

The Court further finds that the following named persons are all of the devisees of this decedent's estate, that they are all legally competent adults whose names and residence are known and that the share of the residuary estate to which each devisee is entitled is as follows:

MARGARET M. MARVIS	1/2
ROBERT P. MARVIS	1/2

The Court further finds that the following described real estate owned by the decedent at the time of death and not disposed of by the Co-Executors during the administration of this estate:

MARVIS, whose mailing address is 13007 Wicker Avenue, Cedar Lake, Indiana, and upon the death of said decedent, all such decedent's right, title and interest in and to said real estate vested in such devisees.

The Court further finds that the decedent's estate has been fully and finally administered excepting only for the distribution of the balance of the estate now in the hands of the Co-Executors and that, subject to the making of such distribution, in accordance with the proposed distribution set out in the Final Account of the Co-Executors, the acts of the Co-Executors and their Final Account thereof should be in all respects approved, and that upon report being made of the completion of such distribution, the Co-Executors should be released and discharged, their bond released and this estate ordered closed.
