NOTE: Articles of Amendment of banking institutions should be executed in quadruplicate, and when all four copies have been approved by the Department, they shall be presented to the Secretary of State. If approved by that officer, one copy will be retained by him and three copies, bearing the endorsement of his approval, will be returned to the Department. The Department will, in turn, forward two copies of the Articles of Amendment to the amending institution with instructions that one copy must be filed with the County Recorder for the County in which the amending institution is located, and the other copy should be forwarded to the F D I C. or to the Federal Reserve Bank if the amending institution is a member of the Federal Reserve System.

If the amending institution is a savings and loan association with insurance of accounts, Articles of Amendment should be filed in quadruplicate, or in triplicate if accounts are not insured.
