Seller's Remedies on Buyer's Default

Time shall be of the essence of this contract.

If Buyer fails, neglects or refuses to make any payment under this contract when due or to perform any of Buyer's covenants, terms and conditions when and as required under this contract:

(1) Seller shall have the right to declare this contract forfeited and terminated, and upon such a declaration, all right, title and interest of Buyer in and to the Real Estate shall immediately cease and Buyer shall then be considered as a tenant holding over without permission and Seller shall be entitled to re-enter and take immediate possession of the Real Estate and to evict Buyer and all persons claiming under him;

(2) Separately or in conjunction with his right under item (1) above, as Seller may elect, Seller shall have the right to file in a court of competent jurisdiction an action to have this contract forfeited and terminated and to recover from Buyer all or any of the following:

- possession of the Real Estate;
- any installments due and unpaid at the time of filing of the action and becoming due and unpaid from that time until possession of the Real Estate is recovered;
- interest on the principal from the last date to which interest was paid until judgment or possession is recovered by Seller whichever shall occur first; provided, however, that this shall not be construed as allowing Seller to recover any interest which would be included under item (2) (b) above;
- due and unpaid real estate taxes, assessments, charges and penalties which Buyer is obligated to pay under this contract;
- premiums due and unpaid for insurance which Buyer is obligated to provide under Article III of this contract;
- the reasonable cost of repair of any physical damage or waste to the Real Estate other than damage caused by ordinary wear and tear, acts of God and public authorities;
- any other amounts (other than payment of the purchase price) which Buyer is obligated to pay under this contract.

(3) In addition to any other remedy under this contract, Seller shall have such other remedies as are available at law or in equity.

(4) In any case Seller shall have the right to retain (without prejudice to his right to recover any other sums from Buyer, or to have any other remedy, under this contract) all payments made by Buyer to Seller and all sums received by Seller as proceeds of insurance or as other benefits or considerations, in each case made or received under this contract.

(5) Seller shall have the right to file in a court of competent jurisdiction an action to recover all of the unpaid balance of the purchase price (which upon default by Buyer under this contract shall, at the option of Seller, become immediately due and payable) and interest on such unpaid balance until such unpaid balance is paid, together with any taxes, assessments, charges, penalties and insurance premiums paid by Seller under this contract and interest on such amounts until they are paid, unless such amounts (and interest on them) have been added to principal under this contract.

The exercise or attempted exercise by Seller of any right or remedy available under this contract shall not preclude Seller from exercising any other right or remedy so available, nor shall any such exercise or attempted exercise constitute or be construed to be an election of remedies, so that no such right or remedy shall be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and each and every such right or remedy shall be cumulative and in addition to any other right or remedy available under this contract.

In any judicial proceeding to enforce this contract Buyer specifically waives, to the extent he lawfully may do, his right, if any, to a hearing preliminary to a judicial order for immediate possession of the Real Estate to be granted to Seller under applicable law.

All sums payable under this contract are payable with accrued interest and without relief from valuation or appraisal laws. In addition to any other sum payable by Buyer under this contract, Buyer shall pay any reasonable expense, including attorneys' fees, incurred by Seller in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy under this contract, and the preparation and delivery of notice.

(6) This Article is enforceable only insofar as it complies with the doctrine enunciated by the Indiana Supreme Court in Skendzel v. Marshall (Ind. 1973) 301 N.E.2d 641.
