FINDING OF FACT AND ACTION TAKEN

Comes now the Division of Code Enforcement by the Enforcement Office of the Unsafe Building Program, Jack Turner, and the following respondent(s) appear(s):

Service of Notice of Hearing and Order to Comply having been made pursuant to I.C. 36-7-9-25 on:

- x sending a copy of said Notice and Order by United States Mail certified.
  personal delivery of said Notice and Order to the respondent(s).
  leaving a copy of said Notice and Order at the dwelling house or usual place of abode of the respondent(s).
- publishing said Notice and Order in The Times, after a reasonable effort to serve by certified mail failed.

Hearing of said Order to Comply is held and the hearing officer being duly advised, NOW FINDS as follows:

1. The premises herein are legally described as follows:
L. 23 Bl. 5 Marble's Subdiv. of Bl. 5 Towle & Young's Add.
in the City of Hammond, Lake County, Indiana,
and commonly known as: 244 Condit

2. The above-described premises is owned by:	Thomas & Mary Ba

3. The allegations contained in the Order of Comply and, more specifically, the List of Code Violations or Repair List attached thereto, made a part thereof and dated $6-8-87$ , are accurate, true and correct and exist on the premises as of this date Respondent(s) do(es) not contest(s) the allegations of the Order to Comply. The respondent(s) do(es) not request(s) an extension of time within which to comply with said Order. A cash performance bond is $
It is, therefore, found that the cumulative effect of the code violations present on the premises renders the premises unsafe, substandard, and a danger to the health and safety of the public as defined by I.C. (1981) 36-7-9-2.
It is further found that major reconstruction of the building(s) is necessary to bring the property up to the Property Maintenance Code of the City of Hammond and that respondent(s) made no serious efforts to make the property safe, although respondent(s) had notice and opportunity to do so since 6-15&amp;16-87 .
IT IS, THEREFORE, THE ACTION OF THE UNDERSIGNED TO: Affirm the order issued by the Division of Code Enforcement in having the structure demolished to protect the health, safety, and well-being of the public and Order bids be taken.
