FINDINGS OF FACT

Having examined and considered such Final Account and being duly advised, the Court now finds that:

1. The amounts claimed as credits for attorney fees are just and reasonable for services rendered to date;

2. The Administratrix has accounted for all assets in the Estate coming into her hands during the administration of the Estate and for which she is chargeable by law;

3. The Indiana Inheritance Tax due by reason of the Decedent's death has been paid;

4. No Federal Estate Tax or Indiana Estate Tax was due as a result of the Decedent's death;

5. There is no Federal or State Income Taxes due as a result of Decedent's death nor was the Decedent or her Administratrix an employer of labor as that term is defined by the Indiana Employment Security Act and therefore there are no unpaid contributions, interests or penalties imposed by such act due from this Decedent's Estate;

6. All claims, including expenses of administration have been paid; there are no unsatisfied claims against the Decedent's estate and all debts and other obligations of this Decedent and her Estate have been paid or discharged;

7. All of the assets of this Decedent's Estate have been fully administered upon;

8. The Administratrix of this estate, a legally competent adult, is LISA NICHOLS.

9. The manner of distribution and disposition of this Decedent's Estate as proposed by the Proposed Distribution Schedule of the Final Account filed by the Administratrix herein is fair, equitable and reasonable and is in all respects correct and has been properly determined in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the State of Indiana;

10. All other matters and things as stated and shown in the final account are true, correct and proper;

11. The final distribution was had in accordance with the final account and that the receipts and vouchers to support disbursements are attached hereto;

12. The Administratrix has in all respects performed and discharged the acts required of her by this Decree and by law and that the said Administratrix and her surety should be discharged;

13. The estate should be closed.

GENERAL CONCLUSIONS

The Court now concludes that such Final Account is correct and that the prayer therein should be granted in full.

DECREE
