11. To undertake performance of any and all acts, whether or not otherwise specifically enumerated herein, including the sale of any property or the borrowing of any funds, which my attorney considers necessary or appropriate in order to purchase United States treasury bonds redeemable at par in payment of federal estate taxes; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as requiring my attorney to acquire any such bonds.

12. To appear and represent me in regard to and to take all actions convenient or appropriate in connection with taxes imposed by any municipal, state, United States or foreign authority or government relating to any tax liability or refund, abatement or credit (including interest or penalties) due or alleged to be due from or to me or any other person or organization, association or trust for which I am responsible for the preparation, signing, executing, verifying, acknowledging or paying of any tax due or filing of a return or report, including without limitation federal or state income or gift tax, for any and all taxable years or periods, and for such purposes to inspect or receive copies of any tax returns filed by or for me, reports or other papers or documents, compromises or adjustments of any and all claims.

13. To prepare, draw, make, sign, execute, seal, acknowledge, verify, discount, accept, endorse, with or without recourse on me, waive demand, notice and notice of protest, file and deliver on my behalf any and all checks, options, orders, notes, drafts, overdrafts, certificates of deposit, bills of exchange, deeds, directions to land trustees, mortgages, leases, powers of sale, drafts, bonds (of indemnity or otherwise) and contracts, transfers, assignments, proxies, agreements, receipts, releases, release deeds, composition agreements, discharges, income or personal or intangible property or gift or other tax returns, estimates, declarations, certificates, schedules, statements, claims of abatement, refund or credit, protests, requests (including requests for rulings from proper authorities), applications, waivers (including waiver of restrictions on the assessment or collection of any deficiency or additional tax), acceptances (including acceptance of any determination or proposed determination of additional tax or overassessment or overpayment of tax, including interest and penalties), consents or waivers or agreements for a later determination and assessment and collection of taxes than is provided by applicable statutes of limitations, closing agreements (whether in respect of a tax liability or a specific matter or otherwise), petitions, pleadings, motions, stipulations, consents and any other papers, documents or writings or things, with or without guarantees, surety obligations, covenants, warranties, indemnifications, representations, powers of substitution, affirmations or otherwise.

14. To appoint and employ, with or without compensation, any accountants, attorneys at law, investment counsel, agents, servants or other persons, including their agents and associates, and to dismiss or discharge the same and to appoint or employ any others in their stead as my true and lawful attorneys, to appear and represent me as to all matters covered by this power of attorney, or for any other purpose, including, but not limited to, appearances before the Treasury Department of the United States, the Tax Court of the United States, the United States Court of Claims or any other court of the United States or the District of Columbia, or any state, municipal or foreign court, and any department or official of the United States government or any state, municipal or foreign government, with full power and authority to such agents and attorneys to do any and all acts convenient or appropriate in connection with such matters, including the specific acts described above, and to substitute attorneys and agents subsequent to the date of such appointment and prior to any revocation thereof, and to delegate or revoke the authority so granted to them.

15. To pay, as my attorney shall deem fit, any debts, or interest, payable by me, or taxes, assessments, and expenses due and payable or to become due and payable for my use and benefit, or for the use and benefit of any person, other than my attorney, to whom I have a legal obligation of support.

16. To the extent my attorney thinks I might have done, to make, unconditionally or upon such terms and conditions as my attorney shall think fit, such donations or contributions to publicly supported charities, private operating foundations and private foundations, all as defined in present Internal Revenue Code section 170 or any equivalent statute. My attorney shall have sole discretion in making such donations or contributions, or my attorney may also make subscriptions, for any reason that my attorney determines such donations, contributions or subscriptions shall be made.

17. To the extent my attorney thinks I might have done, to make, unconditionally or upon such terms and conditions as my attorney shall think fit, such gifts to any one or more of those persons consisting of my wife, my descendants and the spouses of my descendants in my attorney's sole discretion and for any reason my attorney determines.

The total of all annual gifts to any one person, other than my wife, shall not exceed the amount of the annual exclusion under the Internal Revenue Code (currently Section 2503) as in effect from time to time.

18. To substitute and appoint in my attorney's place and stead (on such terms and at such salary or compensation as my attorney shall think fit) one or more attorney or attorneys to exercise for me as my attorney or attorneys any or all of the powers and authorities hereby conferred, and to revoke any such appointment from time to time, and to substitute or appoint any other or others in the place of such attorney or attorneys, as my attorney shall, from time to time think fit.

19. If such disclaimer can be treated as a qualified disclaimer under Section 2518 of the Internal Revenue Code, to disclaim any interest, in whole or in part, which I may acquire (including an interest in any estate, trust, insurance proceeds, annuity, contract or pension plan) for any purpose (including overall reduction in death taxes) and without regard to whether such disclaimed property will pass to the same persons, at the same time or in the same manner as if there had been no disclaimer.

20. Finally (without prejudice to and in enlargement of the authority above conferred) to execute each and every instrument, to undertake each and every obligation, and to take from time to time any and all action of whatsoever nature and with relation to any matters whatsoever, whether or not specifically mentioned herein, and to exercise in respect thereto as full and complete power and discretion as I myself might or could do.

If RITA H. HORNYAK fails or ceases to act as my attorney, I name ROXANNE A. HORNYAK as my attorney.

My attorney shall be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with services hereunder and may charge reasonable compensation for services.

My attorney may resign by written notice to the successor attorney, if any.

Every successor attorney shall have all the rights, powers, discretions and duties given to or imposed upon the original attorney. A successor attorney shall have no duty to inquire into the acts of any predecessor attorney and shall not be liable for any act or omission of any predecessor attorney. Any person may, without liability, rely on the written certification of a successor attorney that such successor has been appointed and has power to act.

My attorney shall exercise or omit to exercise the powers and authorities granted herein in each case as my attorney in my attorney's own absolute discretion deems desirable or appropriate under existing circumstances. I hereby ratify and confirm as good and effectual, at law or in equity, all that my attorney, and any agents and attorneys appointed by my attorney, and their agents, associates and substitutes, may do by virtue hereof. However, despite the above provisions, nothing herein shall be construed as imposing a duty on my attorney to act or assume responsibility for any matters referred to above or other matters even though my attorney may have power or authority hereunder to do so, and nothing herein shall be construed as permitting my attorney to use his power or authority hereunder to discharge my attorney's legal obligations or as permitting my attorney, if and when dealing with me individually, to deal with me other than on an arm's length basis.

My attorney shall be liable only for willful default, not for errors of judgment, and shall have power to bind me or my property without binding my attorney personally.

My attorney may employ any legal, accounting, brokerage or investment counseling firm and my attorney may be a member and pay both such firm and my attorney reasonable compensation for services.

If any power or authority hereby sought to be conferred upon my attorney should be invalid or unexercisable for any cause or not recognized by any person or organization dealing with my attorney, the remaining powers and authorities given to my attorney hereunder shall nevertheless continue in full force and effect.

My attorney shall bring such action in law or in equity in a court of competent jurisdiction as my attorney deems necessary to compel any person, partnership or other legal entity dealing with my attorney to honor this power of attorney. Each person, partnership, corporation or other legal entity relying or acting upon this power of attorney shall be entitled to presume conclusively that this power of attorney is in full force and effect unless written notice shall have been given by me to such person, partnership, corporation or other legal entity that this power has been revoked. In addition, revocation of the appointment of my attorney shall not be effective until my attorney has received actual notice of its revocation in writing from me and delivered to my attorney; until receipt of such actual notice, my attorney shall not be liable to me for any action taken by my attorney.

No person, partnership, corporation or legal entity relying upon this power of attorney shall be required to see to the application and disposition of any monies, stocks, bonds, securities or other property paid to or delivered to my attorney, or my attorney's substitute, pursuant to the provisions hereof.

It is my intent that this power of attorney is durable and shall remain in full force and effect and that the power granted herein shall continue without interruption until my death unless previously revoked by me, or, in the event that I become disabled, incapacitated, or incompetent, until such time as I am adjudged incompetent or a disabled person by any court. This power of attorney shall not be affected by my subsequent disability or incapacity or by lapse of time.

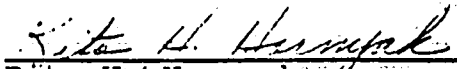

If I become incapacitated, my attorney shall have power to transfer all property owned by me to the then acting trustee under the Rita H. Hornyak Declaration of Trust dated May 28, 1991, to be held and managed under the terms of that trust. I shall be deemed incapacitated when a physician familiar with my condition certifies that I am unable to transact ordinary business, and my attorney may rely on that certification. Any person dealing with my attorney shall be fully protected in assuming that my attorney has received written notice that I am incapacitated in compliance with this paragraph.

Unless this power of attorney has been previously revoked by me, my attorney shall account for all money and property that has come into my attorney's hands to the personal representative of my estate upon my death, or to my guardian or other personal representative if I am adjudged incompetent or disabled.

If I am adjudged to be a disabled or an incapacitated person, partially or entirely, I name my attorney as guardian or as conservator of my person and estate, whichever is appropriate in the judgment of the court. My guardian or conservator shall have all of the powers and authorities granted herein to my attorney, as well as any other powers granted by law.

Reproductions of this executed original (with reproduced signatures and the certificate of acknowledgment) shall be deemed to be original counterparts of this Power of Attorney.

I certify to the correctness of the signatures of my attorneys and I execute this Power of Attorney on June 18, 1991.
