

If at any time the Local Board of Trustees shall cease to exist or to perform its duties, then the State Overseer of the State in which said real estate is located, shall have the power to declare all offices on the said board vacant, and the State Board of Trustees of the Church of God for that state shall automatically then hold title."

By this conveyance, the Church of God State Office, by its chief executive officer, (State Overseer), and/or State Board hereby warrants that the local organization has ceased to exist and the State Office is, pursuant to the law of said church, authorized to convey title as herein done.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Grantors have executed this deed

this 24 day of February, 1992.
