4. That the mortgagor will keep all buildings that may be at any time on said premises during the continuance of said indebtedness insured against all fire and windstorm, in such company or companies as may be satisfactory to the mortgagee, and for such amount as the mortgagee may from time to time direct (the loss or damage to be made payable to the mortgagee as its interest may appear), and forthwith upon issuance thereof will deposit such policies with the mortgagee.

5. That in case the mortgagor fails to pay any tax, assessment, or special assessment, or fails to keep the buildings, fences, and fixtures on said premises in good repair and insured as above provided, the mortgagee may pay such taxes, assessments, or redeem said premises from sale for taxes, assessments, or special assessments, make repairs or procure insurance, and may pay, remove or discharge any claim, lien or encumbrance, or may purchase any tax, title or claim against said premises, and protect the title and possession thereof in order to preserve the priority of the line of this mortgage thereon, and may employ attorneys at law to perform any service connected with this mortgage, or to prosecute or defend any suit affecting or involving this mortgage or the title or possession of said premises, and that all monies paid for any such purpose and all security intended to be effected hereby, shall be immediately due and payable with interest thereon at the highest rate of interest permissible by law, and become so much additional indebtedness secured by this mortgage, and the mortgagor agrees to pay all sums so advanced with interest without relief from valuation and appraisal laws; provided, however, that it shall not be obligatory upon the mortgagee to advance money for any of the purposes aforesaid, or to inquire into the validity of such taxes, assessment or special assessments, or tax sales (the receipts of the proper officers being conclusive evidence of the validity and amount thereof), or into the necessity of such repairs.

6. That if default be made in the performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein or in said note contained, on the part of the mortgagor to be kept and performed, then the whole of said indebtedness secured hereby, including all payments for liens, taxes, assessments, special assessments, insurance, attorney's fees, costs, charges or expenses, shall at the election of the mortgagee, and without notice of such election, at once become due and payable at the place of payment aforesaid, anything in said note or herein to the contrary notwithstanding, and thereupon the mortgagee shall have the right (to be exercised in the process of law, using such force as may be necessary) to enter upon and possess, hold and enjoy said property, and to lease the same or any part thereof upon such terms as to it shall seem best, and to collect and receive all rents, issues and profits thereof, and to make alterations, improvements and repairs, effect insurance, pay taxes, assessments and special assessments, and do all such other things as may be deemed necessary for the proper protection of the property, and the mortgagee shall have the right to foreclose this mortgage and shall have all other rights and remedies that the law provides, and sale under foreclosure decree shall be without relief from valuation and appraisal laws.

8. That upon commencement of any foreclosure, or at any time thereafter, and prior to the expiration of the time for redemption from any sale of said premises on foreclosure, any court of competent jurisdiction, upon application of the mortgagee, may appoint a receiver for said premises to take possession thereof, to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure, and until the time to redeem the same from foreclosure sale shall expire, and out of rents, issues and profits, to make necessary repairs and to keep the premises in proper condition and repair, and pay all taxes, assessments, and special assessments, to redeem from sale for taxes, assessments and special assessments, and to pay insurance premiums necessary to keep said premises insured in accordance with the provisions of this mortgage and to pay the expense of the receivership, and said receiver shall apply the net proceeds to the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and such receiver shall have all the other usual powers of receivers in such cases.

10. That the mortgagee, at its option, may extend the maturity of the note and indebtedness hereby, or any balance due thereon, from time to time, upon written agreement executed by the mortgagor, for such further periods, at such rate of interest, and upon such conditions as may then be agreed upon, and no such extension, and no forbearance or delay of the mortgagee in enforcing any of the provisions of this indenture, shall operate to impair the lien hereof or waive any rights accrued or that might accrue hereunder.

11. That this indenture and the note secured hereby are made and executed under, and are, in all respects, to be construed by the laws of the State of Indiana and that the various rights, powers, options, election, appointments, and remedies herein contained shall be construed as cumulative, and no one of them as exclusive of any other or of any right or remedy allowed by law, and all shall insure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the mortgagee and of all holders of said note.

12. Said mortgaged premises shall not be sold or transferred without the written consent or the mortgagee, and no contract or agreement shall be entered into by the mortgagors whereby anyone may acquire the right to lien, mortgage or other encumbrance upon the mortgaged premises, without the written consent of the mortgagee first had and obtained.

13. That whenever the mortgagor shall have fully paid the indebtedness hereby secured, with all the interest thereon, and up to that time shall have well and truly performed all and singular the covenants and agreements herein undertaken to be performed, then all of such covenants and agreements shall cease and determined (but not otherwise), and the mortgagor or the successors or assigns thereof, shall be entitled to a satisfaction of this mortgage, but shall pay the expense of recording the same.
