(4) to maintain the improvements in good repair, to refrain from the commission of waste, to cultivate the property in a good and husbandman like manner and not to cut, remove or permit the cutting or removal of timber therefrom except for domestic use; (5) that neither Mortgagor nor, to the best of Mortgagor's knowledge, any prior owner has created conditions which may give rise to environmental liability; that no enforcement actions are pending or threatened and that any costs the Mortgagee incurs as a result of environmental liabilities shall become a part of the debt secured hereby; to permit Mortgagee and its agents to enter upon the property to make such inspections and tests as Mortgagee may deem appropriate to determine compliance of the property with this covenant (any inspections or tests made by Mortgagee shall be for Mortgagee's purposes only and shall not be construed to create any responsibility or liability on the part of the Mortgagee to Mortgagor or to any other person); (13) that in any foreclosure action or other proper proceeding the court shall, at the request of the Mortgagee, appoint a receiver for the property; (14) that if the indebtedness is subject to a guarantee from Farmers Home Administration, the Mortgagors shall be in default under this mortgage, the above note(s) and other loan documents should any loan proceeds be used for a purpose that will contribute to excessive erosion of highly erodible land or to the conversion of wetlands to produce an agricultural commodity, as further explained in 7 CFR Part 1940, Subpart G, Exhibit M; prior to loss of the exemption from the highly erodible land conservation restrictions found in 7 CFR Part 12. Mortgagors must demonstrate that Mortgagors are actively applying an approved conservation plan on that land which has been determined to be highly erodible prior to 1990 or two years after the Soil Conservation Service has completed a soil survey for that land, whichever is later; and Mortgagors must demonstrate that any production of an agricultural commodity on highly erodible land will be done in compliance with an approved Soil Conservation Service conservation system; (15) that the omission of the Mortgagee to exercise its option upon any default as aforesaid, or to exercise any other option or right hereunder, shall not preclude it from the exercise thereof at any subsequent time or for any subsequent default; (16) that upon the payment of all sums secured by this mortgage, Mortgagee shall release this mortgage without any charge paid to the Mortgagee. Unless prohibited by applicable law, Mortgagor shall pay any actual recordation costs prescribed by law and paid to public officials for the release of this Mortgage; (17) that the covenants, agreements and provisions herein contained shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the heirs, devisees, personal representatives, grantees, successors, and assigns of the respective parties; (18) that wherever in this Mortgage either the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee is named or referred to, such naming or reference includes all of the class and assigns, heirs, personal representatives, grantees, or successors of either, as the case may be; and that the pronoun as used herein in the third person singular, includes the person, number and gender appropriate to the first designation of the parties; (19) all references to the interest rate as referred to hereinabove shall be subject to the interest rate provisions of the Note or Notes secured hereby and any supplemental agreements.

In the event that any provision or clause of this Mortgage conflicts with applicable law or is declared unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, then any such provision or clause shall be severable and shall not affect the remaining provisions of this Mortgage or the enforceability thereof.

THE CONDITION OF THIS MORTGAGE is such that if all payments provided for in the Note are made and each and all the covenants, conditions and agreements, either in the Note or in this Mortgage, are complied with, then this Mortgage shall be null and void, otherwise the same shall remain in full force and effect.
