If any provision of this Mortgage shall be unenforceable or void, then such provision shall be deemed severable from the remaining provisions to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and if severed, shall in no way affect the enforceability of the remaining provisions nor the validity of this Mortgage or the Contract.
- 10. Debt Due on Sale. If all or any part of the Property or any interest in it is sold or transferred without Mortgagee's prior written consent, Mortgagee may, at its option, require immediate payment in full of all sums secured hereby, unless prohibited by federal law. If Mortgagee exercise this option, Mortgagee shall give Mortgagor notice of such acceleration which notice shall provide a period of time within which Mortgagor must pay all sums secured hereby. If Mortgagor fails to pay these sums within such period, Mortgagee may invoke any remedies permitted by this Mortgage without further notice to Mortgagor.

  11. Default; Notice of Default and Right to Cure; Acceleration. Mortgagor will be in default if Mortgagor fails to make any payment when due or if any
- 11. Default; Notice of Default and Right to Cure; Acceleration. Mortgagor will be in default if Mortgagor fails to make any payment when due or if any condition in this Mortgagor or the Contract is violated, and such breach materially impairs the condition, value or protection of or Lender's rights in the Property, or materially alters Mortgagor's ability to pay amounts due. Where required by law, Mortgagoe will send Mortgagor written notice of default and right to cure. The Notice shall specify the breach, the action required to cure the breach, a date by which such breach must be cured and that failure to cure such breach on or before the date specified in the notice may result in acceleration of the sums secured hereby and sale of the Property. If the breach is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, Mortgagee, at its option, may declare all of the sums secured hereby to be immediately due and payable without further demand and may invoke the power of sale and any other remedies permitted by applicable law. If Mortgagee invokes the power of sale, Mortgagee shall give notice of sale in the manner prescribed by applicable law to Mortgagor and to other persons prescribed by applicable law. Mortgagee shall publish the notice of sale and the Property shall be sold in the manner prescribed by applicable law. Mortgagee or its designee may purchase the Property at any sale. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied to 1) all statutory expenses, 2) to all sums secured hereby, and 3) any excess to the clerk of the Circuit Court of the County in which the sale is held.
