In accordance with the above-said Indiana Statute, the Lake County Auditor is hereby presently authorized and ordered to transfer the real estate easement being condemned by this action to the Plaintiff, the State of Indiana, Little Calumet River Basin Development Commission on the tax records of Lake County, Indiana. Said real estate easement is described as follows:

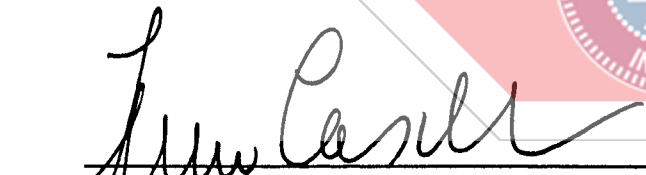

FLOWAGE EASEMENT (Occasional Flooding)

The perpetual right, power, privilege and easement occasionally to overflow, flood, and submerge the land described as follows:

LOTS 3 AND 4, BLOCK 1, IN GEORGIA GARDENS, IN THE CITY OF GARY, AS SHOWN IN PLAT BOOK 24, PAGE 80, IN LAKE COUNTY, INDIANA.

in connection with the operation and maintenance of the Little Calumet River, Indiana Local Flood Protection and Recreation Project as authorized by Section 401 of the Water Resources Development Act of 1986 (P.L. 99-662), together with all right, title, and interest in and to the structures and improvements now situate on the land, except fencing; provided that no structures for human habitation shall be constructed or maintained on the land, that no other structure shall be constructed or maintained on the land except as may be approved in writing by the representative of the United States in charge of the project, and that no excavation shall be conducted and/or no landfill placed on the land without such approval as to the location and method of excavation and/or placement of landfill; the above estate is taken subject to existing easements for public roads and highways, public utilities, railroads, and pipelines; reserving however to the landowners, their heirs and assigns, all such rights and privileges as may be used and enjoyed without interfering with the use of the project for the purposes authorized by Congress or abridging the rights and easements hereby acquired; provided further that any use of the land shall be subject to Federal and State laws with respect to pollution.

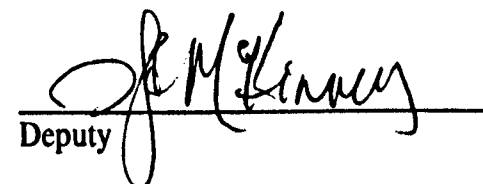

Furthermore, this is to certify that all fees and expenses incurred in this matter, have been paid in full and in addition to the above-said amount of damages paid into court.
