LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

MAY 23 2000

OF

LESTER J. BORMAN

Anna M. Cotton
CLERK, LAKE COUNTY

I, LESTER J. BORMAN of Merrillville, Indiana, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby declare this to be my last will and testament, and I hereby revoke all wills and codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

ITEM I

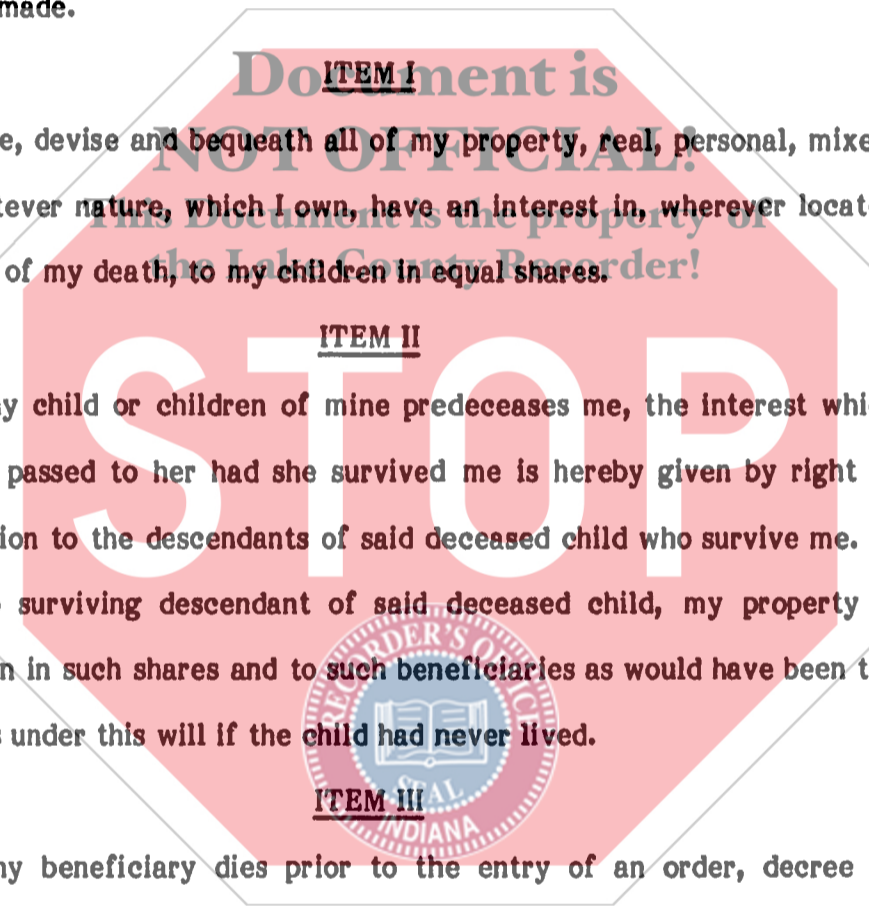

I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, real, personal, mixed, and of whatever nature, which I own, have an interest in, wherever located at the time of my death, to my children in equal shares.

ITEM II

If any child or children of mine predeceases me, the interest which would have passed to her had she survived me is hereby given by right of representation to the descendants of said deceased child who survive me. If there is no surviving descendant of said deceased child, my property is hereby given in such shares and to such beneficiaries as would have been the distributees under this will if the child had never lived.

ITEM III

If any beneficiary dies prior to the entry of an order, decree or judgment in my estate distributing the property in question, or within three months after the date of my death, whichever is earlier, any interest which would have passed to said beneficiary under the provisions of this will are to be disposed of according to the plan of distribution which would have been in effect under this will if such beneficiary had predeceased me. It is my intention that any property or interest which is distributed from my estate as a result of any court order, decree or judgment will not be revoked or otherwise affected by the subsequent death of the distributee.

PROOF OF WILL

Herman Barber, the undersigned, being first duly sworn upon his oath says:

1. He is one of the attesting witnesses to the attached written instrument dated July 6, 1978, which instrument purports to be the Last Will and Testament of Lester J. Borman, deceased.
2. Such instrument was on the date thereof duly executed, published and declared by the decedent to be the decedent's Last Will and Testament.
3. At such time, decedent was 21 years of age or older, of sound mind, was competent to devise his property, was acting under his own free will and under no duress, and that to the best of the knowledge of the undersigned, the execution thereof was not obtained by fraud, that the undersigned knows of no valid objection to the validity of such will or to the probate thereof.
4. Decedent signified to the attesting witnesses that such instrument was decedent's Last Will and Testament, and executed the same, all in presence of said attesting witnesses thereto, namely the undersigned and Barbara Polen, all of whom were then competent under the law to act as such witnesses.
5. In the presence of decedent and in the presence of each other, each of the attesting witnesses attested and signed the same.

ORDER OF PROBATE OF WILL

Comes now Betty Lou Mummery, and submits to the court an instrument in writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Lester J. Borman, deceased, and a petition for probate thereof with no administration. Such instrument and petition read as follows: (H.I.), and now submitted to the Court and the Court having examined the same, having heard the testimony of Herman Barber, the attesting witness and other evidence, and being fully advised, finds that the allegations of the petition are true, and that:

1. That the above named decedent died on the 22nd day of July, 1999, and at the time of death was domiciled in Lake County, Indiana.
2. That the written instrument submitted as decedent's Last Will and Testament has been duly proved, as the Last Will and Testament of the decedent and such should be admitted to probate in this county.

IT, THEREFORE, IS ORDERED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that the written instrument submitted is the Last Will and Testament of said decedent, and hereby admitted to probate and record as such.

ALL OF WHICH IS FOUND AND RECOMMENDED this 23 day of May, 2000.

PROBATE COMMISSIONER,
