Notice of Estate Tax Lien

VS.

United States

No.

Internal Revenue Code

Sec. 6324B. Special lien for additional estate tax attributable to farm, etc., valuation.

(a) General Rule.

In the case of any interest in qualified real property (within the meaning of section 2032A(b)), an amount equal to the adjusted tax difference attributable to such interest (within the meaning of section 2032A(c)(B)) be a lien in favor of the United States on the property in which such interest exists.

(b) Period of lien. The lien imposed by this section shall arise at the time an election is filed under section 2032A and shall continue with respect to any interest in the qualified real property--

(1) until the liability for tax under subsection (c) of section 2032A with respect to such interest has been satisfied or has become unenforceable by reason of lapse of time, or (2) until it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary that no further tax liability may arise under section 2032A(c) with respect to such interest.

(c) Certain rules and definitions made applicable.

(1) In general. The rule set forth in paragraphs (1), (3), and (4) of section 6324A(d) shall apply with respect to the lien imposed by this section as if it were a lien imposed by section 6324A.

(2) Qualified real property. For purposes of this section, the term "qualified real property" includes qualified replacement property (within the meaning of section 2032A(h)(3)(B)) and qualified exchange property (within the meaning of section 2032A(l)(3)).

(d) Substitution of security for lien. To the extent provided in regulation prescribed by the Secretary, the furnishing of security may be substituted for the lien imposed by this section.

Sec. 6324A. Special lien for estate tax deferred under section 6166.

(d) Special rules.

(1) Requirement that lien be filed. The lien imposed by this section shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of section 6323(f) has been filed by the Secretary. Such notice shall not be required to be refiled

(2) Period of lien. The lien imposed by this section shall arise at the time the executor is discharged from liability under section 2204 (or, if earlier, at the deferred amount is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

(3) Priorities. Even though notice of lien imposed by this section has been filed as provided in paragraph (1), such lien shall not be valid.--

(A) Real property tax and special assessment liens. To the extent provided in section 6323(b)(6).

(B) Real property subject to a mechanic's lien for repairs and improvements. In the case of any real property subject to a lien for repair or improvement, as against a mechanic's lienor.

(C) Real property construction or improvement financing agreement. As against any security interest set forth in paragraph (3) of section 6323(c) (whether such security interest came into existence before or after tax lien filing). Subparagraphs (B) and (C) shall not apply to any security interest which came into existence after the date on which the Secretary filed notice (in a manner similar to notice filed under section 6323(f)) that payment of the deferred amount has been accelerated under section 6166(g).

(4) Lien to be lieu of section 6324 lien. If there is a lien under this section on any property with respect to any estate, there shall not be any lien under section 6324 on such property with respect to the same estate.

Sec. 6323. Validity and priority against certain persons.

(b) Protection for certain interests even though notice filed. Even though notice of a lien imposed by section 6321 has been filed, such lien shall not be valid --

(6) Real property tax and special assessment liens. With respect to real property, as against a holder of a lien upon such property, if such lien is entitled under local law to priority over security interests in such property which are prior in time, and such lien secures payment of --

(A) a tax of general application levied by any taxing authority based upon the value of such property,

(B) a special assessment imposed directly upon such property by any taxing authority, if such assessment is imposed for the purpose of defraying the cost of any public improvement; or

(C) charges for utilities or public services furnished to such by the United States, a State or political subdivision thereof, or an instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing.

(c) Protection for certain commercial transactions financing agreements, etc.

(3) Real property construction or improvement financing agreement. For purposes of this subsection --

(A) Definition. The term "real property construction or improvement financing agreement" means an agreement to make cash disbursements to finance --

(i) the construction or improvement of real property, (ii) a contract to construct or improve real property, or (iii) the raising or harvesting of a farm crop or the raising of livestock or other animals.

For purposes of clause (iii), the furnishing of goods and services shall be treated as the disbursement of cash.

(B) Limitation on qualified property. The term "qualified property", when used with respect to a real property construction or improvement financing agreement, includes only --

(I) in the case of subparagraph (A)(i), the real property with respect to which the construction or improvement has been or is to be made,

(ii) in the case of subparagraph (A)(ii), the proceeds of the contract described therein, and

(iii) in the case of subparagraph (A)(iii), property subject to the lien imposed by section 6321 at the time of tax lien filing and the crop or the livestock or other animals referred to in subparagraph (A)(iii).

(f) Place for filing notice; form.

(1) Place for filing. The notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be filed --

(A) Under state laws.

(i) Real property. In the case of real property, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated; and

(ii) Personal property. In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, in one office within the State (or the county, or other governmental subdivision), as designated by the laws of such State, in which the property subject to the lien is situated, except that State law merely conforming to or reenacting Federal law establishing a national filing system does not constitute a second office for filing as designated by the laws of such State; or

(B) With clerk of district court. In the office of the clerk of the United States district court for the judicial district in which the property subject to the lien is situated, when the State has not by law designated one office which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A); or (C) With recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia. In the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, if the property subject to the lien is situated in the District of Columbia.

(2) Situs of property subject to lien. For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (4), property shall be deemed to be situated --

(A) Real property. In the case of real property, at its physical location; or

(B) Personal property. In the case of personal property, whether tangible or intangible, at the residence of the taxpayer at the time the notice of lien is filed.

For the purpose of paragraph (2)(B), the residence of a Corporation or partnership shall be deemed to be the place at which the principal executive office of the business is located, and the residence of a taxpayer whose residence is without the United States shall be deemed to be in the District of Columbia.

(3) Form. The form and content of the notice referred to in subsection (a) shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Such notice shall be valid notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the form or content of a notice or lien.
