SUPERIOR COURT OF INDIANA LAKE COUNTY
CRIMINAL DIVISION
CROWN POINT, INDIANA

2004 JUN 17 AM 10:55

MORRIS V. ...
RECORDED

CAUSE 45G01-9306-CF-00158

STATE OF INDIANA,) Plaintiff,) v.)
CURTIS JAMES HICKS,) Defendant.)

ORDER

02-29-96 The defendant Curtis James Hicks appears in person with his attorney Angela Bryant. The State of Indiana appears by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Kristina C. Kantar. The Court having entered judgment for the crime of Robbery, a Class B felony, after a jury trial, and having considered the written presentence report, now sentences the defendant to a term of seven (7) years. The Court orders the defendant committed to the Department of Correction for a term of seven (7) years.

The reasons for the imposition of the sentence are as follows: the court has considered the risk that the defendant will commit another crime; the nature and circumstances of the crime committed; the defendant's prior criminal record, character and condition; any oral or written statement made by the victim; and the following:

The Court finds in mitigation: 1) The defendant has the support of his family and community who have both testified on his behalf and sent letters to the Court. 2) The defendant has been gainfully employed and providing for his dependents. 3) The defendant has had an addiction to cocaine and attempted rehabilitation through treatment programs.

The Court finds in aggravation: 1) The defendant has a history of criminal activity as follows: Defendant has a prior conviction of Criminal Trespass, A misdemeanor. In that cause, the victim in that cause was the same as that in this cause. The offense was originally charged as Battery, A misdemeanor, and Criminal Recklessness, Class D felony, but amended by plea agreement.

The defendant is to receive credit for 32 days spent in confinement as a result of this charge.

The Court now advises the defendant of his right to appeal this conviction according to law and the defendant now states that he does wish to appeal his conviction and has sufficient funds with which to hire private counsel. Attorney Marce Gonzalez appears and enters his appearance on behalf of the defendant for the purpose of appeal. Attorney Gonzalez is ordered to file the appropriate document pursuant to CR 16, whether a motion to correct error praecipe within 30 days to today's date and to perfect the defendant's appeal to the Indiana Court of Appeals.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Sheriff for execution of the judgment of this Court.

A hearing is conducted pursuant to IC 35-33-8-3.1. Public Defender Angela Bryant files an affidavit of services provided. The defendant shall be required to pay one hundred twenty-three dollars ($123.00) in court fees and two thousand, one hundred twenty-five ($2,125.00) dollars for the costs of representation by the Public Defender. Pursuant to IC 33-9-11.5, the clerk is directed to deduct the court fees and costs of representation from the cash bail previously posted by the defendant, and is further directed to deposit the costs of representation in the county supplemental public defender services fund. The real estate bond shall be released after payment of the above fees. (Susan L. Bono reporting.)
