Recitals

- A. SBA is the holder of a promissory note made by Borrower on August 2, 2001, in the principal amount $199,000 ("Note") Borrower has also executed a Loan Authorization and Agreement, Security Instruments and other documents in connection with the loan. ("SBA Loan Documents")

- C. Buyer has purchased or is about to purchase all or part of the Encumbered Property and desires to assume Borrower's obligations to SBA.
- D. A transfer of the Encumbered Property without SBA's consent is a default under the terms of the SBA Loan Documents and SBA's consent is conditioned upon Buyer's unconditional assumption of the Borrower's obligations to the SBA.

Agreement Terms

In consideration of the representations, promises and conditions in this agreement, the parties agree as follows:

1. ASSUMPTION OF DEBT AND RELATED OBLIGATIONS - Effective upon transfer of the Encumbered Property to Buyer, Buyer assumes all of Borrower's obligations to SBA. 2. DUE DILIGENCE - Buyer's rights to disclosure of agency records with respect to the assumed obligation shall be deemed co-extensive with the rights of Borrower and any Guarantor(s) to the full extent permitted by law. Borrower and any Guarantor(s) agree not to assert any privacy rights with respect to Buyer's request for agency records concerning the assumed obligation.

 - Have any disposition of Collateral advertised; and
 - Require a valuation of Collateral before or after SBA disposes of it.
- Notice of:

- Borrower has avoided liability on the Note; or
- SBA has taken an action allowed under the Note, this agreement, or other Loan Documents.
- All rights and defenses arising out of an election of remedies by the creditor, even though that election of remedies such as a nonjudicial foreclosure with respect to security for a guaranteed obligation, has destroyed the surety's rights of subrogation and reimbursement against the principal by the operation of Section 580d of the California Code of Civil Procedure or otherwise.
