The defendant having tendered a plea of guilty with an agreement, which is accepted on this date, the Court now enters judgment of conviction for Count I - Battery, a Class C felony. After considering the aggravating and mitigating factors, as stated on the record in open court, the Court finds that the aggravating factors outweigh the mitigating factors, and the defendant is sentenced to six (6) years in the Indiana Department of Correction. The defendant is advised of his postconviction relief rights and appeal rights and indicates that he does not wish to appeal.

The defendant having served the executed portion of his sentence in the Indiana Department of Correction, the defendant is ordered transferred to Lake County Community Corrections instanter.

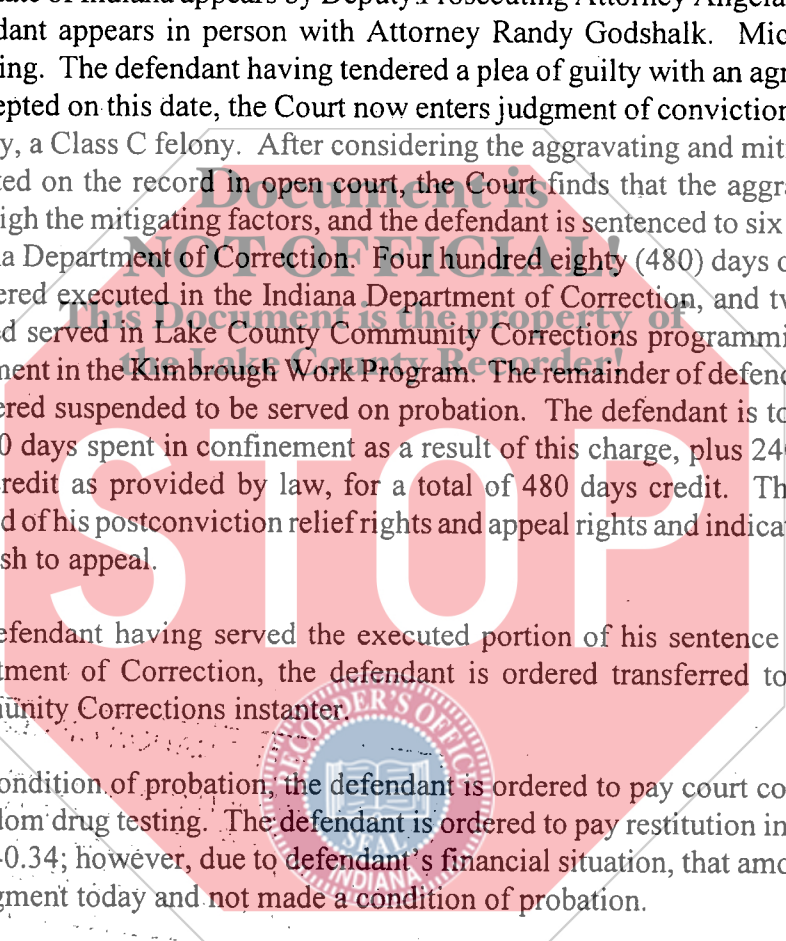

As a condition of probation, the defendant is ordered to pay court costs and submit to random drug testing.
