2. GIFTS AND MISCELLANEOUS:

My Attorney-In-Fact shall have general authority with respect to financial and estate planning, considering factors related both to my disability and my death. By way of example and not by way of limitation in describing these powers, my Attorney-In-Fact shall have authority to engage in the following acts:

- (a) To give at any time or times any or all of my assets, cash, property or interests in property, including any right to receive income from any source and including a change of ownership or beneficiary on any policy of life insurance, to those persons and in the same proportions as set forth in my estate planning instruments, and without regard to any restrictions on aggregate yearly value of a gift to an individual as set forth in I.C. 30-5-5-9. To the extent that my Attorney-In-Fact is a beneficiary of my estate, then such Attorney-In-Fact is specifically authorized to receive a proportionate share of any gift as provided hereafter.
- (b) To create trusts or other legal entities or agreements necessary to effect my estate plan.
- (c) To make transfers pursuant to I.C. 30-2-8-5, commonly known as the Indiana Uniform Transfer to Minors Act, or under any similar law of another jurisdiction.
- (d) To disclaim any property or interest in property or powers.
- (e) To employ other financial and estate planning devices.
- (f) To take any and all actions necessary to receive government benefits for my health, care, welfare, maintenance and support.

The estate and financial planning powers herein conferred are for the purpose of reducing tax liability and effecting transfers to family and charities.

In carrying out the powers granted in this paragraph, my Attorney-In-Fact shall be guided by the standard that the estate planning powers are designed, in part, for the preservation of my assets and shall exercise such powers in a way as to provide for my best interests and of the beneficiaries of the plan, without any prohibition against self-dealing.

I hereby designate and appoint the next named Successor Attorney-In-Fact as my Special Agent under this instrument who shall have full power and authority to make gifts at anytime and in any amount of my real and personal property, tangible and intangible, to my then acting Attorney-In-Fact, without any limitation whatsoever regarding the yearly aggregate value of such gifts. Nevertheless, all gifts made by my Special Agent and all gifts made by my Attorney-In-Fact shall be made to those persons and in the same proportions as set forth in my estate planning instruments. If I do not have an estate plan, then all gifts made by my Special Agent and all gifts made by my Attorney-In-Fact shall be made in the amount dictated by the laws of intestate succession and to those persons who would have been by heirs-at-law under the laws of intestate succession.

My Attorney in Fact shall have full power and authority to establish a new residence or legal domicile for me, from time to time and at any time, within or without this state, and within or without the United States, for such purposes as my Attorney in Fact shall deem appropriate, including, but not limited to, any purpose for which this instrument was created.

In the exercise of any powers described in this Power, my Attorney In Fact shall have full power and authority to do and perform every act and thing necessary, proper or convenient to be done as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do for myself.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall my Attorney In Fact have any of the following power:

- (a) To benefit himself, herself, or any other person in any way that could result in any part of my property being included in my Attorney In Fact's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes, or cause any part of my property to be deemed to be the subject of a taxable gift made personally by my Attorney-In Fact;
- (b) To make any payment or application which discharges any legal obligation of my Attorney In Fact;
- (c) To possess the power to exercise any incident of ownership with respect to any policy I own insuring the life of my Attorney In Fact;
- (d) To have any power which causes the holder of the power to be treated as the owner of any interest in my property and which causes that property to be taxed as owned by the Attorney In Fact.

I ratify and confirm all that my Attorney In Fact does, or causes to be done, under the authority granted in this Power. All documents signed, endorsed, drawn, accepted, made, executed, or delivered by my Attorney In Fact shall bind me, my estate, my heirs, successors and assigns.

3. EFFECTIVE DATE:

This Power of Attorney shall not be affected by the lapse of time and shall become effective upon execution. From and after the effective date of the powers granted under this Power of Attorney, I shall continue to have all of the powers and authority necessary to deal with my own affairs in any manner that I see fit. However, from and after the date on which my Physician determines that I am incapacitated, or incapable of handling my own personal and/or financial affairs, I shall no longer have any authority or power to deal with my property, directly, or indirectly. The individual acting as Attorney in Fact at such time, shall have the full power and authority to obtain from my attending Physician, a report determining whether I am incapacitated, or not, and am unable to handle personal and/or financial affairs.

4. RELIANCE BY THIRD PARTIES:

To induce third parties to act in accordance with the powers granted to my Attorney In Fact in this Power, I represent and warrant that:

- (a) If this document is revoked or amended for any reason, I, my estate, my heirs, successors, and assigns will hold any third party harmless from any loss suffered, or liability incurred, by the third party in acting in accordance with this document before the third party's receipt of written notice of termination or amendment;
- (b) The powers conferred on my Attorney In Fact may be exercised alone; my Attorney In Fact's signature or actions under the authority granted in this Power may be accepted by third parties as fully authorized by me and with the same force and effect as if I were personally present, competent and acting on my own behalf;
- (c) No person who acts in reliance upon any representation of my Attorney In Fact as to the scope of my Attorney In Fact's authority granted under this document shall incur any liability to me, my estate, my heirs, successors, or assigns for permitting my Attorney In Fact to exercise any such power, nor shall any person who deals with my Attorney In Fact be responsible to determine or ensure the proper application of funds or property;

5. TERMINATION:

I revoke all prior general Powers of Attorney that I may have executed. I retain the right to revoke or amend this Power and to substitute other Attorneys-In-Fact in place of any of those named in this Power. This shall be the case even if the individual shall reappear after establishing that he or she could not be located upon reasonable inquiry, or if he or she is subsequently able to transact business.

7. GUARDIANSHIP:

In the event a proceeding is brought to establish a guardianship for me, I appoint the individual then acting, or eligible to act, as my Attorney In Fact under this Power, to serve as guardian, and to have responsibility for the care, custody, and management, and supervision of my property and physical person.
