The State of Indiana appears by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Rochelle Moody. The Probation Department appears by Officer Ingrid Rais. The defendant appears in person with Public Defender Casey McCloskey. The defendant denies the allegation that he violated Rules #4 and 12 and admits the remaining allegations contained in the first amended petition to revoke probation, which is granted. The parties ask to proceed with sentencing. The defendant is sentenced to two hundred forty-eight (248) days in the Lake County Jail, which the court finds is time served. The defendant was incarcerated from 05-30-15 through 10-01-15. The defendant is given one hundred twenty-four (124) days credit for time spent in confinement as the result of this charge, and one hundred twenty-four (124) days good time credit, for a total of two hundred forty-eight (248) credit days. The defendant is ordered released from the Lake County Jail in this case only. The probation department orally moves to discharge the defendant unsatisfactorily from probation, which is granted. The Court orders court costs waived. The clerk is directed to enter a judgment lien against the defendant for remaining probation user fees owed. The clerk is directed to notify the Lake County Sheriff and is further directed to show this case as disposed. (Mary L. Slafindor, reporting.)
