

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

BE IT KNOWN TO ALL, that I, Sharon Bowman, being of the age of consent of eighteen (18) years or older and currently residing at 6815 W. 128th Ave., Cedar Lake, in the County of Lake located within the State of Indiana and whose zip code is 46303, do hereby designate, establish and appoint Lisa Marie Bowman-Dridi, as my official allocated Attorney-in-Fact ("Representative") to perform in my name and stead.

I do hereby revoke and/or rescind any "General Power of Attorney" signed by me that was previously in effect. HOWEVER, this does not revoke nor invalidate any Power of Attorney that may be directly related to any Advance Health Care Directive previously signed by me.

THEREFORE, it is my wish that my Representative shall maintain full power and authority to act on my behalf. The Representative shall have complete authority to manage and conduct all my affairs and to exercise all of my legal rights and powers, including any and all rights and powers that I may acquire in the future. My Representative's powers shall include, but are not limited to, the authority to:

- The handling and management of any form of bank accounts that are in my name (re. opening, closing; transfers etc.) that include, but is not limited to, checking, savings, money market accounts, certificate of deposit and/or individual retirement accounts and any other comparable or related accounts with any financial institution. The aforementioned Representative may conduct and/or perform any manner of transactions as follows:
 - The administration of financial business and transactions with any banking or financial institution in relation to all my accounts, with regards to making deposits and withdrawals, obtaining and receiving bank statements, money orders, certified checks, drafts, passbooks, and certificates or vouchers payable to me by any individual, professional practice, business or political entity.
 - Execute steps deemed necessary to make deposits, exchange, convert, sell or transfer any bank note, monies or securities of the U.S.A.
 - The Representative shall be granted full access to any safe deposit box, as well as any contents contained within.
 - The Representative shall have full authority to handle and manage (add, delete, and/or change) any and all beneficiaries with regards to any financial accounts currently within my possession which may include, but is not limited to, any insurance policies, annuities, retirement accounts, savings/checking accounts or other investments.
- The Representative shall be authorized to manage, dispose of by selling or exchanging, acquire by purchasing, investing or reinvesting any assets or property (real or personal) currently owned by me or that which I may own in the future. Assets or property may include, but not limited to, income producing or non-income producing property and/or assets.
- The Representative has the power authority to purchase and/or maintain any insurance, including that of life insurance on my life or any annuity contracts on my behalf.
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to initiate, handle or manage any and all legal means deemed necessary on my behalf to ensure the collection of any debt or money owed to me or my estate, as well as to resolve and/or reconcile any outstanding claim, despite whether the claim may be against me or on my behalf against an individual or entity.

- The Representative shall have the power and authority to right to initiate, establish and/or enter into any binding contracts that may be deemed necessary on my behalf.
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to manage, maintain, administer and/or operate any business that may be under my ownership and control.
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to manage and make arrangements in an effort to provide for the support and protection for myself, any current spouse or any minor children to ensure any and all support obligations are met (e.g. food, medical, schooling, housing, transportation, travel etc.).
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to act my proxy to employ and/or carry out any and all stock rights/options that are in any manner related to the purchasing, selling, trading, exchanging and/or transfer of stocks, bonds, commodities, options, debentures and/or other investments on my behalf.
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to either contract and/or employ any professional or business assistance deemed necessary and appropriate on my behalf, including, but not limited to, the hiring of any accountant or bookkeeper, business administrator, attorney, and/or real estate professional.
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to conduct or perform any function with regards to any real estate or property currently under my ownership or any which may be later acquired including, but not limited to the managing, leasing, transferring, repairing, improving, insuring, and/or selling on my behalf. In addition, the Representative shall have the power and authority to sell or encumber any homestead which I may now own or may later acquire.
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to prepare, or to have prepared, sign and file any and all necessary documents with the appropriate governmental organization or bureau, which may include, but is not limited to the following authorized items:
 - Right to prepare, sign and file federal income, state, local tax returns or any other tax returns required by a governmental entity
 - Right to obtain any necessary information or documents from any government bureau, and then to negotiate, concede and/or settle any matter with said government or bureau (including tax matters) on my behalf.
 - Right to prepare, or to have prepared, any application, convey information, and/or execute any other function rationally requested by any government organization or bureau with regards to any governmental benefits that would include, but not limited to, social security, medical or military benefits. In addition, the Representative may appoint someone to perform the function of "Payee" to receive Social Security payments and benefits on my behalf.

- The Representative shall have the power and authority to distribute gifts from amongst my assets to any designated individual or charitable organization with whom I may be affiliated, distribute any appropriate gifts for any tax purposes or estate planning, the power and authority for the filing of any federal or state gift tax returns, and/or the filing of any tax selection to split gift with a spouse as specified only by this instrument or by a Last Will and Testament. However, my appointed Representative cannot and shall not distribute any gifts to himself/herself, his/her family members, associates, friends or any another Representative.
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to convey any of my current assets to a trustee, executor or agent of any revocable trust having been created by me and that said trust, if any, existing at time of transfer.
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to renounce any interest which would be transferred or allocated to me from another individual, trust, or other appropriate entity.
- The Representative shall have the power and authority to perform on my behalf with the intention of organizing, administering, allocating, dispensing and/or terminating digital assets, if any. Digital assets may include, but are not limited to, electronic assets stored on any of my computers, electronic devices or any online account. Other online accounts may include social networking sites, email accounts, backup services, photographs and document sharing, domain names, financial and/or business accounts, websites, virtual property and/or blogs. Authorization extends to the right to access, download, backup, conversation of files, manage digital assets, clear or clean computer caches and/or delete files.

THEREFORE, let it be known that this Power of Attorney shall be interpreted as a General Power of Attorney, and as such the specific intentions are not meant to limit or impede the powers conferred with regards to this Durable Power of Attorney in any way.

IN ADDITION, any right or authority that shall be extended to my Representative by way of this instrument shall be limited to the degree deemed necessary as a means to prevent this Power of Attorney that would create or trigger: (i) any portion of my current or any future acquired assets to become subject to any general power of appointment by my Representative, (ii) my Representative to have any occurrences of ownership with regards to any life insurance policies that I may purchase or possess on the life of my Representative, and (iii) any portion of my income to become taxable to my Representative.

FURTHERMORE, let it be known that my Representative shall not be held liable, in any manner or aspect, for any loss which may result from any judgment error made in good faith while performing on my behalf. However, my Representative could be held and shall be held liable for any "willful misconduct or failure to act in good faith" in the performance of their fiduciary responsibilities as my Representative in accordance with this Durable Power of Attorney.

I hereby authorize my designated Representative to indemnify and hold harmless any third party who accepts and acts under this instrument.

IN SO MUCH, that my Representative carries out and abides by my wishes, s/he shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for any of his/her services provided as my Representative.

IN ADDITION, my Representative shall be to reimbursement of any and all reasonable expenses which may have been incurred in connection with the aforementioned Power of Attorney.

LASTLY, my Representative shall furnish and deliver a comprehensive report for any and all accounts controlled or any activities performed in accordance with federal and state laws, and in whatever manner as instructed or requested by me or any authorized personal representative, governmental bureau or official organization which may be acting on my behalf.

THE AFOREMENTIONED Durable Power of Attorney shall become effective immediately following the signing of this instrument on the date indicated. This instrument shall not be affected should I become disabled or be deemed mentally incompetent, except as may otherwise be provided or stipulated herein or by applicable state statute. This Durable Power of Attorney shall remain in effect until my demise or is revoked by me through written notification to my Representative.

NOTICE REGARDING INDIVIDUAL EXECUTING POWER OF ATTORNEY

The implementation of a Power of Attorney is an important legal document, and should not be undertaken lightly. With the signing of the Durable Power of Attorney, you are hereby authorizing another individual to act on your behalf. There are significant facts that you should be aware of and familiar with prior to you signing the aforementioned Power of Attorney.

- Your appointed Representative (the Attorney-in-Fact) shall have no obligation to perform unless both you and your Representative shall agree otherwise in writing.
- The above Durable Power of Attorney provides your Representative with the authority to administer, dispense with, trade, sell and transfer your real and personal property, as well as the option to use said property as security should your Representative borrow money on your behalf, unless otherwise provided in writing within this Durable Power of Attorney.
- As your Representative, s/he shall have the right to receive reasonable compensation for any and all functions, activities and services provided and/or contained within the aforementioned Power of Attorney unless you provide otherwise within this instrument.
- Please note that any power you convey to your Representative shall continue to endure your entire lifetime, unless a shorter duration of time is stipulated or should you otherwise terminate your authorized Durable Power of Attorney.
- The powers provided to the Representative within the aforementioned Power of Attorney shall continue to exist even if you should become mentally or physically incapacitated and thus unable to make decisions with regards to the management of assets, finances, and property (real and personal), unless otherwise stipulated within said Durable Power of Attorney.
- Changes or corrections to any of the terms contained within the aforementioned Power of Attorney can be made only by the execution of a new Power of Attorney, or through the execution of an amendment by way of the same formalities as the original. The Principal of the Durable Power of Attorney shall maintain the right to change, revoke and/or terminate this agreement at any time as long as said Principal is deemed competent.
- The aforementioned Power of Attorney must be dated and acknowledged before a notary public and/or signed by two (2) witnesses. Witnesses to the aforementioned Power of Attorney must be deemed mentally competent and will also be required to witness the principal's signing of the Power of Attorney and/or the principal's signing/acknowledgment of his/her signature. Any legal document or instrument that could affect a principal's real property should be acknowledged before a notary public for ease of recording.
- A Power of Attorney should be reviewed and read carefully prior to signing. Once the instrument becomes effective, said Durable Power of Attorney shall provide your Representative the power and authority to manage any and all property you now own or may acquire in the future. A Durable Power of Attorney is an important instrument/document, and as such, should you not understand any item or provision contained therein, you should seek the assistance of an attorney or qualified individual to advise you accordingly.

NOTICE REGARDING INDIVIDUAL ACCEPTING APPOINTMENT AS ATTORNEY-IN-FACT

Acceptance of or the agreement to act as the Representative (Attorney-in-Fact) with regards to the aforementioned Power of Attorney, you undertake the fiduciary and other legal duties and/or responsibilities of a Representative. These duties/responsibilities include:

- The Representative shall have the fiduciary and legal duty to act solely in the interest of the principal; with faithfulness, devotion, trustworthiness, dependability, care, competence and/or diligence as required to avoid any misunderstandings or conflicts of interest.
- The Representative shall have the fiduciary and legal duty to maintain and to keep account of any and all transactions, dealings and communications that transpired on behalf of the Principal named in the Durable Power of Attorney. Such transaction records shall include, but are not limited to, receipts for purchases, sales, transfers and deposits, disbursements, collection of money owed, payment of bills or liabilities to or for the principal, and any other dealings or transactions with regards to any of the principal's assets or liabilities.
- In the event that the principal should appoint a separate Health Care Representative to administer any health care decisions, the Representative to this Durable Power of Attorney shall cooperate fully with the principal's duly appointed Health Care Representative in making decisions pursuant with the principal's desires/wishes or that which is deemed in the best interest of the principal.
- The Representative shall have the fiduciary and legal duty related to maintain and uphold any estate plan that the principal may have in effect, if any.
- The Representative shall have the fiduciary and legal duty to preserve the principal's property separate and well-defined from any other property that the Representative may have under his/her power and possession.
- The Representative shall have the fiduciary and legal duty to cease and/or terminate actions as Representative (Attorney-in-Fact) related to the aforementioned Durable Power of Attorney upon the occurrence of any of the following items:
 - The Principal's demise;
 - The cancellation or revocation of aforementioned Durable Power of Attorney;
 - The onset of any date which may be contained within the stipulated Durable Power of Attorney, stating or stipulating a date terminating the Durable Power of Attorney, if any; or
 - No additional action required under the Durable Power of Attorney.
- In the event that the Representative (Attorney-in-Fact) is the spouse of the principal, said Durable Power of Attorney shall be terminated upon legal separation or dissolution of the marriage.
- At any time should the Representative willfully violate, misuse, exploit, mishandle or abuse the power or authority conveyed or granted under this Durable Power of Attorney, you, as the Representative, may be held accountable, responsible and/or liable for any said intentional actions pursuant to federal and state laws governing this Durable Power of Attorney.

- In addition, as the Representative (Attorney-in-Fact), you shall have the right to pursue and obtain legal advice should you not understand any stipulated duties and responsibilities as Representative or any provisions contained within the Durable Power of Attorney.

As the appointed Representative to the Durable Power of Attorney, as stipulated within the aforementioned instrument, you do not have the right to transfer nor convey any of the principal's property, now owned or later acquired, to yourself, family member or any associate without full and adequate consideration nor accept a gift of the principal's property unless otherwise stipulated within the aforementioned Durable Power of Attorney. In the event that the designated Representative should transfer any of the principal's property to his/herself without precise detailed written authorization contained with the Durable Power of Attorney, the Representative could be prosecuted, to the fullest extent allowable by law, for fraud and/or embezzlement. Should it be determined that the principal was or is 65 years of age or older at the time said property was illegally transferred to the Representative without precise detailed written authority, the Representative could be prosecuted pursuant to and in accordance with the federal and/or state Elder Abuse Laws of Indiana Code Â§ 35-46-1-4 To 35-46-12. In addition to criminal prosecution, the Representative may be sued in civil court as well.

THEREFORE, I hereby acknowledge that I have read the foregoing notice and that I understand all contained fiduciary and legal responsibilities that I hereby assume by action of signing as the Representative (Attorney-in-Fact) in accordance with the terms and conditions contained within the Durable Power of Attorney.
