Dear Timothy J. Sloan (WELLS FARGO CEO), Robert Krusynski (Agent), and associated parties, with reference to the letters dated 08/04/2016, 10/12/2016, as well as all statements, notices and requests delivered prior by recorded mail. In those letters I asked you to provide the following reasonably requested specific items:

1. Proof of Claim that the alleged liability has been created in the form of an original contract.
2. Proof of Claim that the alleged liability exists in the form of a verified true bill signed by your client and charged to LEMUEL LEE JACKSON III™ pursuant to the The Bills of Exchange Act (1882)
3. Proof of Claim that WELLS FARGO BANK N.A., and agent(s) has the legal right and lawful authority to attempt to enforce collection and/or foreclosure of the alleged liability in the form of Proof of Agency.
4. A copy of the contract signed by both parties and therefore binding both parties.

I herby serve Notice that failure to provide Proof of Claim by WELLS FARGO BANK N.A and agents, has created a permanent and irrevocable estoppel by acquiescence, forevermore barring WELLS FARGO BANK N.A. and Agent(s) from bringing any and all claims, legal actions, orders, demands, lawsuits, costs, levies, penalties, damages, interests, liens and expenses whatsoever, against LEMUEL LEE JACKSON III™.

It is important that you acknowledge and understand that this is not a letter but a legal notice, which is a different specie of correspondence all together. I hereby declare that the law of agent and principal shall apply and that service upon one is service upon another.

Furthermore, your failure to provide Proof of Claim in the form of the above reasonably requested specific items comprises the tacit procuracy of WELLS FARGO BANK N.A and Agent's agreement to the following terms and conditions:
