The defendant, Felisha Ann Mongerie, appears with Attorney Andreas Kyres. The State of Indiana appears by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Jonathan Soverly. The parties file their stipulated plea and agreement and stipulated factual basis. The court examines the defendant regarding the plea agreement submitted to the court and finds that she is 40 years of age; that she is aware of her constitutional rights and that she voluntarily waives them. The defendant tenders a plea of guilty voluntarily to the charge of Count II: Welfare Fraud, Level 6 felony. The court further finds that she understands the nature of the charge against her to which she has pled guilty; that she understands the minimum and maximum sentence and fine thereunder; that her plea is accurate and that there is a factual basis for the defendant's plea of guilty.

FILED FOR RECORD

The court now accepts the plea of guilty tendered this date and enters judgment for the crime of Count II: Welfare Fraud, Level 6 felony. The parties waive the preparation of the written presentence investigation report. The court sentences the defendant in accordance with the term of the plea agreement to a term of two and one-half (2 ½) years in the Lake County Jail. The court suspends said sentence. The defendant is placed on probation for a term of two and one-half (2 ½) years. As a condition of probation, the defendant is ordered to pay probation user's fees as assessed. As an additional condition of probation, the defendant is ordered to pay $50 each month while on probation, restitution to the victim, Indiana Family and Social Services Administration. The parties further agree that restitution in the amount of $34,905.00 to Indiana Family and Social Services Administration shall be entered as a judgment against the defendant and in favor of the victim in the judgment docket of the Clerk of this Court. The defendant waives the reading of general rules of the probation terms in open court.

The defendant may petition for mid treatment upon successful completion of probation and the satisfaction of the above judgment.

SS/E

The reasons for the imposition of the sentence are as follows: the nature and circumstances of the crime committed, the character of the defendant, the defendant's prior criminal record and the mandatory nature of the plea agreement. The court finds the agreed term to be reasonable in light of these considerations.

The defendant is to receive credit for 1 day spent in confinement as a result of this charge, plus 1 day of good time credit as provided by law, for a total of 2 days credit. The State of Indiana, by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Jonathan Soverly, files motion to dismiss Count II, which is granted.

Court costs are assessed. Bond ordered released after payment of court costs and made payable to Attorney Andreas Kyres. Case disposed. The Court setting of August 5, 2019 is vacated. [Mary L. Salfindor reporting].
