deed, or other instrument executed by the Trustee of said trust in relation to said real estate shall be conclusive evidence in favor of every person relying upon or claiming under any such conveyance or other instrument:

A. that at the time of the delivery thereof the trust created by this indenture and by said trust agreement was in full force and effect;

B. that such conveyance or other instrument was executed in accordance with the trusts, conditions and limitations contained in this indenture and in said trust agreement or in some amendment thereof and binding upon all beneficiaries thereunder;

C. that the Trustee of said trust was duly authorized and empowered to execute and deliver every such deed, trust deed, or other instrument; and,

D. if the conveyance is made to a successor or successors in trust, that such successor or successors in trust have been properly appointed and are fully vested with all the title, estate, rights, powers, authorities, duties, and obligations of its, his or their predecessor in trust.

The interest of each and every beneficiary hereunder and of all persons claiming under them or any of them shall be only in the earnings, avails and proceeds arising from the sale or other disposition of said real estate, and such interest is hereby declared to be personal property, and no beneficiary hereunder shall have any title or interest, legal or equitable in or to said real estate as such but only an interest in the earnings, avails and proceeds thereof as aforesaid.

Our duly named Successor Trustee shall have all of the powers herein granted to the Trustee of said trust in the absence, death or inability to act on the part of said Trustee and any lease, conveyance or mortgage by such Successor Trustee shall be conclusive evidence of his authority to execute the same.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said Elliot P. Smith and Rebecca L. Smith have hereunto set their hands and seals to this Deed in Trust consisting of three (3) typewritten pages, on this 29th day of June, 2020.
